

AROUND THE GARDENS AND PLAZA

Family Taken for Spin in 1920

"Born Thirty Years Too Late," was Mrs. J. L. Clifford's comment about their host Erik Rosenau, of Orange County. The Cliffords, of 2822 Eldorado, enjoyed a wonderful day's outing on Mr. Rosenau's 11-acre ranch, sightseeing his antique collection. They were even treated to a ride in his unique cars, a 1920 Pierce-Arrow convertible. At 23, an adamant collector of the fine in the antique arts, Mr. Rosenau boasts a collection consisting of a grand old player-piano, the old wind-up wooden base telephones and six antique cars. The cars he has taken exceptional care of, placing them in a special garage, painting their exteriors in bright shining colors, and refinishing the interiors sumptuously. He even dresses the part, wearing the remembered flares and frocks, the straw hat and even the blazer. A participant in many of the activities and conventions of the old car enthusiasts in the past, his next anticipated tour is in March at which time he plans to attend the convention at Grand Canyon.

With the "Power of Positive Thinking," Mrs. Bev Dyer enthusiastically took over the responsibility of heading a money-making project, namely a rummage sale, intended to raise funds for Accret. Theoretically to fix up the theater wing of the YMCA. She came out the winner. The rummage sale was a great success because of her hard work and the cooperation of her co-workers, Mrs. Robert Foster, Mrs. Mary Lee Peters, Mrs. William Boswell, Mrs. M. Bauman, Mrs. Ladeene Chamberlain, Mrs. Paul Harestad, and others in the group.

Entertaining at a charming party recently on a Saturday night at the Hospital Guild Valentine dance, were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson, of 1222 Tert. The Tolsons have attended the Guild dances for four years in a row now. Guests enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres at the pre-dance party. Those attending, were Messrs. and Mrs. William Tolson Jr., Robert Stewart, James Post, Warner Summers, and Art Long.

"Ticked red" would be the more apt cliché in the case of the Rodney Clark family. They were seen flashing around in their bright, new 1955, red station wagon last Sunday. Picking up Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klinging, of 2829 Onrado, in their whirlwind tour, they rocketed to Disneyland, where they enjoyed 3 1/2 days with the children, and the fantases. The Clarks had anticipated their new car for months and intend to enjoy it thoroughly.

Home at last! The long awaited arrival of Captain Lloyd Wilbrecht by his family and friends culminated last Thursday when he flew in via TWA from St. Johns, Greenland. The captain is with the Air Force and has been separated from his family, barring brief runarounds, for a year and a month. Because of poor weather, conditions of the plane was several hours late and didn't arrive until 7:30 p.m.

Tartar Teen Talk

By KAREN HESTER, DA 6-4891

Orange County Park was the scene of excitement and fun over the holiday week end last Tuesday, those who went were, Jessie Hannon and Penny Phillips, Bonnie Fletcher and Richard Nanny, Marilyn Moss and Skip Smith, Barbara Carter and Kenny Wheat, Jessa's Blank and Gary Knox, Marilyn Sess and Mike Kendall, Patty Wingard and Dick Dawson, Judy Clark and John Zambrano, Janet Saunders and David Skinner and many more. They all enjoyed bicycle riding, hiking and fishing. They all had a happy holiday without casualties.

The Girls League cabinet recently passed a new rule for the girls that low necked sweaters cannot be worn on campus. The TKA and TLA will enforce this rule thoroughly while the Girls League cabinet will try

Authority To Speak On Youth

The reduction of juvenile delinquency will be the subject of a lecture to be given Thursday at 8 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium, by Ben Solomon, authority on youth problems. Solomon has been lecturing throughout the state before town hall meetings and civic groups. Sponsors of his local appearance are the Torrance Recreation Department and the Torrance Coordinating Council.

Linda, the Wilbrecht's 6-year-old daughter, became impatient with anticipation and only quieted down when mother assured her that patience was the only answer. "We can't just reach up and pull him out of the sky!" Linda was satisfied to wait.

The Wilbrechts' stay in Torrance now is indefinite, 20 days, give or take some. They are preparing to leave en masse for Reinstein, Germany. But they're still finding time to enjoy friends and family. Today evening they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Pat Caldwell, Mrs. Wilbrecht's sister, and Saturday evening at the home of friends, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Prout, of 1008 Eriel.

Tally-Ho bridge club met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Pat Peters. A stirring patriotic theme prevailed as the serving table was gaily decorated in red and white, carnations, respresented with white candles and miniature flags. (That was George Washington's birthday, remember?). Guests were served ample pieces of cherry (of course) pie, proud with mounds of whipped cream supporting little flags. As the guests played cards, they enjoyed tall drinks of the "Peters Special," a recipe known only to the Peters family, and frankly they're not clear about it. Those attending were Mrs. Jack Klinging, Mrs. Vivian Moore, Mrs. Audrey Pipkin, Mrs. Pat Clark, Mrs. Madeline Zaborowski, Mrs. Ann Willis, and Mrs. Alice Perkin.

Celebrating the renewal of acquaintance with old friends, the Lee Gentrys, formerly of Kornblum Ave., were honored at a cocktail party last Saturday night. The gala affair was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Stary, 1208 Fonthill St. Guests enjoyed cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, and spirited dancing. The unusual pastime of the astounded guests was the invitation by their host and hostess to "write on the wall." With the gaiety of doing the forbidden, they complied only to discover that it was perfectly all right. The wallpaper was to be replaced the next day. Later, guests enjoyed a midnight buffet of baked ham and cheese party sandwiches. Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Klinday, William Stenberg, William Fox, and Joe Saba.

A case of the unnerved gourmet! The Otto Lippoldts, of 1208 Fonthill, guesting for dinner at the home of the Glen Danielsons of Compton, found that their dinner was starting back at them. Complete with head, body, and tail, they were served choice Rainbow trout recently caught by the Danielsons on an Oregon fishing vacation. Staunched with spirit, and bolstered by their cocktail hour preceding dinner, the Lippoldts attacked their beauty-tyed en-

17 Cases Reported
Seventeen cases of disease were reported in the South Bay area for the week ending Feb. 25, according to the County Health Dept.

Only five of the diseases were in the Torrance area: 2 cases of scarlet fever, two cases of mumps, and one case of epilepsy.

offenders in Girls Court.

Have all you seniors seen the personal name cards in the window of the sewing class? You seniors better get on the ball and decide which one you like. There will be a representative around sometime this week for orders.

The annual Tartar Ladies, Tartar Knight Ball, was held last Saturday night at the Paladium. After the ball a few couples went over to Mike Kendall's to spend the rest of the evening. A hall was had by all.

Jessie Hannon started the year off good by pitching a two-hitter against Morningglades last Tuesday, the final score was 3-2, our favor. I was happy to see so many students out to our game.

Our Friday night basketball game with Centennial was changed to 2:45 p.m. instead of the usual time. Not many students knew about this so there weren't many at the game. It was a terrific game, though, the final score was 22 to 20, our favor. That was really a terrific way to end the season, team.

For the schedule during the week be sure to watch the bulletin in the main hall and find out what is happening.

Did I hear some Tartars joking "Happy Birthday" to Jofran Rubeo and Gary Knox last Friday?

tree, expertly slicing off head and bones. "Without the before dinner martini, I could never have done it," shuddered Mrs. Lippoldt. Needless to say, the broiled-in-butter fresh trout was delicious and they were wont to admit it but they couldn't remember when they had enjoyed a meal so much. They played bridge later but the hosts couldn't resist teasing them about their facial expressions when they first spied their trout!

Pat Woodward Named Queen of Skate Rink
Pat Woodward was selected Queen of the Torrance Roller-Rink last week and will represent the rink at regional judging to determine the California Queen, a spokesman for the rink said recently.

Miss Woodward will enter the Richmond, Calif. state judging in July.
Following the state judging, the winner will travel to Richmond, Va. for national competition.
